The President's Report

Hard to believe that another year has gone by. 2016-17 was another busy year with many well attended events for the association - and many photos taken to prove it.

In the president's report this year, I wanted to focus on a couple of key items of particular significance to me - which I hope will be of interest to all members.

1. Raising of 9 Regiment RAA. Since the field regiments were disestablished several years ago and replaced with the light batteries, the Reserve RAA has been under command of infantry battalions. While the experience of 7 Light Battery RAA as part of 2/17 Battalion RNSWR was generally positive, many of our interstate gunners experienced many difficulties as part of that structure. It was with particular pleasure therefore, that we learnt about the raising of 9 Regiment, where once again gunners are commanded by gunners. I hope that many of you will be able to attend the annual reunion in November to hear a presentation on the new Regiment by our guest speaker.

2. ANZAC Day March - 7 Light Battery For many years on ANZAC day, the march has traditionally been attended by older association members only. Since the ANZAC centenary however, we have seen our march numbers swollen to record levels with both old 7 Field Regiment and serving gunners of 7 Light Battery. I would like to think that the increased interaction with the battery, the offer of honorary membership and the new banner commemorating our historical roots all played a part, but in reality, it is the welcome and acceptance by all members in demonstrating that we are an association of all the gunners of 7, not just the olds and bolds. I strongly believe that this shows we are a thriving association, not one that is withering away.

3. Work on a new website. For years, Pat Sengos, our dedicated webmaster, has been battling with an antiquated website that was last considered cutting edge at the time of the great flood. The committee has taken a decision to update the website to a new platform and to refresh its look and ease of use so that it can be kept current, updated easily, and contain more functionality. Watch this space.

I wish to express thanks to two outgoing committee members, Sharon Fulcher (who has moved away from Sydney) and Bob Moysey (health). Sharon was a long standing committee member of many years, and Bob took the lead in organising the centenary dinner last year. Thanks to both of you, and I hope to see you at ANZAC day or an association function soon.

To JB - who has once again worked tirelessly as secretary and in putting together YANDOO, thank you.

I wish you all the best for the rest of 2017.

Ubique.

FROM THE CO's DESK

In 2017, 7 Lt Bty has transitioned from 'Reset' to 'Readying' in the Force Generation Cycle. This transition moves the focus from individual skills to force generating personnel for the Battle Group (BG) Waratah Lt Bty. During this time the Lt Bty has continued to contribute to real capability, by participating in, or providing support to:

- Australia Day Salute (fired from Bradfield Park in conjunction with 23 Lt Bty)
- M2A2 Gun Salute Course (Jan – W/E: Holsworthy Range)
- Officer Cadet Training Block 5 (Jan-Feb – 33 days: RMC-D)
- Exercise FUNNEL WEB MARKSMAN 17-1 (Feb – W/E: Singleton Range)
- RAA Light Artillery Induction Course (Feb – 14 days: Randwick)
- Exercise FUNNEL WEB COMBAT 17-1 (Mar – W/E: Singleton Range)
- Anzac Day Ceremonial Duties (Manly, Pittwater)
- Demonstration – Capability Display in support of 23 Lt Bty (Apr – W/E: Holsworthy Range)
- Subject 4 Bombardier RAA Joint Fires Team Module 2 (Apr-May – 5 days: Randwick)
- Exercise WARK 17 (May – 9 days: Singleton Range)
- Mortar Basic Course (May – 9 days: Singleton Range)
- Joint Fires Team Basic Observer Course (May-Jun – 14 days: Randwick)
- Artillery Light Command Post Operator Course (May-Jun – 14 days: Randwick)
- Queen's Birthday Salute (fired from Mrs Macquarie's Chair, Royal Botanic Gardens in conjunction with 23 Lt Bty)

- Officer Cadet Training Block 2 (Jun-Jul – 16 days – Singleton Range)
- Exercise FUNNEL WEB MARKSMAN 17-2 (Aug – W/E: Singleton Range)
- Subject 4 Bombardier RAA Joint Fires Team Module 1 (Sep – 5 days: Randwick)
- Exercise TELOPEA WALK 17 (Sep – 9 days: Singleton Range)

Also during this time, members of the Lt Bty have deployed on operations domestically, on exchange overseas with 16 Fd Regt, Royal New Zealand Artillery, as well as provided support as individual augmentees to 4 Regt RAA and the BG Cannan Lt Bty in their 'Readying' year during Exercise HAMEL / TALISMAN SABER 2017. Whilst maintaining these significant contributions to capability, the Lt Bty has also managed to accomplish considerable training and capability development outcomes with 25% of Lt Bty personnel completing individual training courses to progress in their rank and/or trade in the last 12 months.

During the first major exercise of the year, Exercise WARK 17, the Lt Bty was able to concurrently conduct a Mortar Basic Course to qualify new Gunners while also providing integral Joint Fires capability and advice to the 8 Bde Combat Team. The exercise and concurrent course was a 'critical enabler' to setting the conditions to transition to the 'Readying' year where it will assume a supporting role to 23 Lt Bty, 4/3 RNSWR who have taken over leadership of the BG Waratah Lt Bty during this iteration of the Force Generation Cycle.

The Lt Bty's first exercise for the 'Readying' year as part of the BG Waratah Lt Bty will be Ex TELOPEA WALK, to be held in Singleton over nine days in September. This will also be the first major exercise for 2/17 RNSWR as part of 5 Bde, following its reassignment from 8 Bde in June. In addition to a Bde-level Milskills Competition and Field Training Exercise, the remainder of the year for the Lt Bty will be focused on preparing administratively for the transition out of 2/17 RNSWR into the newly formed 9 Regt RAA that is set to become operational in Jan 2018, when it will assume command of all Lt Bty elements from around the country, across the 2nd Division.

As such, it is with some mixed feelings that I conclude this update to the 7 Fd Regt RAA Association, as it will be the last update provided by the Commanding Officer of 2/17 RNSWR. In the five years that 7 Lt Bty has been part of 2/17 RNSWR, it has not only distinguished itself within the Battalion through its large contributions to readiness and capability, disproportionate to its size, but also across the 2nd Division where it was accorded the honour of the Most Proficient Lt Bty in the Division and awarded the Mt Schanck Trophy for the last biennial period.

The performance of 7 Lt Bty and all those who have served in it during this time has truly been a credit to the Royal Australian Artillery and its lineage from 7 Fd Regt. As they continue to navigate through the remainder of this year and towards the transition point to 9 Regt RAA, 7 Lt Bty remains poised and well prepared to meet the challenges that lay ahead of them as part of BG Waratah and a new Artillery Regimental structure. All members of the 7 Fd Regt RAA Association should take pride and rest assured that their heritage is being well maintained and represented by 7 Lt Bty.

CENTENARY PLAQUES

As part of the commemoration of the Centenary of 7th Field Artillery Brigade, plaques were installed by the Association in late 2016 at Dee Why, Erina and Adamstown Depots.

3rd Division Artillery AIF Banner

Appearances at the past three Sydney ANZAC Day marches by a banner commemorating 3rd Div. Artillery AIF has led to some questions being asked as to its background.

For about forty years 3rd Div artillery veterans proudly paraded their own banner during each Sydney Anzac Day march. 1975 marked the last year that would happen, with the banner being handed in at 7 Field Regiment's depot for safe keeping. The veterans chose that place because of the direct link between the 3rd Division's 7th Field Artillery Brigade and the then Willoughby based unit.

Early in 2014 the committee of 7 Field Regiment RAA Association held a series of talks aimed at finding an historically appropriate way to commemorate the efforts and sacrifices made by men of the 7th Field Artillery Brigade during its service with the AIF in France and Belgium from Dec 1916 through to the Armistice of Nov 1918.

Several different concepts were discussed, with the committee eventually deciding to pay for the manufacture of a banner that would, in an over-arching sense, commemorate not only the 7th FAB but all those artillery units that supported 3rd Division in all the major battles in which it participated through to the end of the war.

One of the committee's members was then tasked with deciding the new banner's shape and wording.

With no little help from his wife, the member came up with a design based on that of the original but updated to assist contemporary ANZAC day crowds understand what the banner represents and commemorates. The use of the words "Australian Imperial Force" rather than "AIF" on its facing was chosen as a way of making clear what those initials stand for, there being more than a little confusion amongst many on that point.

Once all relevant matters were settled Mr. John Vaughan of Australiana Flags at Northbridge NSW was contacted and agreed to turn the design into form, with the banner ready for collection by October 2014.

Early in 2015 permission was obtained from NSW RSL headquarters to parade it one place ahead of 7 Field Regiment RAA Association's own banner at that year's ANZAC day march.

Paraded in the same position in 2016, LTCOL Alain Dunand this year allocated the banner a spot immediately behind the Royal Australian Artillery Association's banner, which itself leads post WW2 Artillery contingents each ANZAC Day.
