The President's Report

First I would like to thank the members for allowing me the privilege of serving you as President for another 12 months.

This past year has seen the Association continue to serve its members through the ongoing work of our Committee members. At the time of writing our association members number 218 all up.

Unfortunately, due to COVID-19 we have only been able to stage one regular function to date - the Annual Reunion held last November at Chatswood RSL.

For the reunion we were fortunate to secure LTCOL Gary Mackay MC, a published military historian, who was briefly a member of the Regiment before going on to full time National Service with 4RAR and continued to serve with the ARA until retirement in 1995.

LTCOL MacKay gave us an entertaining and informative insight into his military career, particularly his service in Vietnam and his post retirement career as a military historian and author.

We also announced the winner and runner up of the annual Soldier's Award and JB and I travelled to Dee Why depot a couple of weeks later to present the awards.

With the arrival of COVID-19 in February our annual Anzac luncheon and the annual Anzac Day march had to be cancelled. Hopefully, we will be back to normal for 2021.

Our May Committee meeting was deferred until 22 June, but this year's AGM was able to be held on time and puts us back on track – for the moment.

Despite COVID your committee has remained active and Association Secretary, John Balfour, has been keeping the administration wheels turning in the background.

Committee member Bob Waller has been working on the reconstruction of our Web Site to a more modern format and despite a number of technical challenges because of the age of the original web page format, this is now close to fruition.

Our Facebook Group continues with 64 members.

In July we followed up our relationship with 9 Regiment when John Balfour, Jim Nash and myself met with the new CO, LTCOL David Carew and his team, to introduce ourselves and what we do as well as receive an update on the Regiment's ongoing activities.

This was a most informative meeting which was well received and has further strengthened our relationship with the Regiment.

If you are a Facebook Group member you will notice several updates and photos of recent activities have been posted by 7 Battery following a suggestion put to the CO. Hopefully this continues as it provides insight to us "oldies" into the workings of the modern Army Reserve.

We are also hopeful of at least one visit to a 7 Bty Live Firing Exercise later next year, but no promises.

Our Annual Reunion for 2020 is going ahead with a proposed temporary change of venue to Forestville RSL Club, on Friday 13 November.

The CO of 9 Regiment has accepted our invitation to attend the Reunion and speak to us about what is happening with the Regiment.

Of course, the event will be COVID safe with some restrictions on moving around the Club premises, but it will be a chance to catch up in these difficult times with old mates. We would love to see you there.

Lastly, I would like to thank the Committee for its hard work over the last 12 months and the support of our members and look forward to things returning to some sense of normality in 2021.

UBIQUE

FROM THE CO's DESK

The 2019/2020 period marks the third year since the establishment of 9th Regiment RAA as the indirect fires capability for the 2nd Division. It was also during this period that the 2nd Division took on a more strategic role and became a significant stakeholder in the security of Australia's domestic interests particularly support to domestic operations.

Since the beginning of the high risk weather season commencing in September of 2019, domestic events have required a whole of Government response to natural and biological disasters. Bushfire emergencies in vast areas of Australia's eastern states endured throughout the summer months which was followed by the COVID-19 pandemic affecting all regions of Australia.

The officers and soldiers of 9th Regiment from all states and territories (except NT) responded to Operation Bushfire Assist and Operation COVID-19 Assist whilst continuing to provide support to Border Security operations. For those members who did not deploy during these operations, they saw training move from face to face to remote learning over platforms like GovTeams. This forced change however could be the impetus for a generational change in the way in which Army delivers training heading into the future.

Unmanned Aerial Vehicles (UAV) distinguished themselves during Operation Bushfire Assist, as suitable platforms for tasks such as search, fire surveillance and route clearance and 9th Regiment plays an important role in continuing to develop this capability within the 2nd Division to support domestic operations and foundation warfighting.

In the final quarter of 2019, under the command of then Commanding Officer LTCOL Lachlan Searle, prior to completion of his posting, the Regiment's administrative headquarters was relocated from Kogarah to Randwick Barracks. Following this, in January of 2020, LTCOL David Carew assumed command of the Regiment, continuing the pace of modernisation and directing a new pathway that would solidify the foundations of the Regiment while meeting the new priorities of the 2nd Division with a focus on Domestic Operations.

7 Battery has been an active participant throughout this period. Whilst posturing to commence the READYING phase of the Force Generation Cycle in June of 2020, the Battery has sustained a high tempo against events both planned and unplanned.

Notably, 7 Battery has:

- Deployed personnel on multiple Operations in the SW pacific (January to Sept)
- Conducted a G-Wagon and G-Wagon conversion course (Singleton in January)

- Deployed a force of 26 personnel during Operation Bushfire Assist including commanders, Liaison Officers, UAV operators, drivers and chainsaw teams (NSW in Jan-Feb)
- Supported the Australia Day Gun Salute (Bradfield Park in January)
- Supported Officer Cadet Training Block 3 (Holsworthy in April)
- Deployed 15 personnel on Operation COVID-19 Assist securing hotel quarantine, ports and other vital infrastructure. (April onwards)
- Conducted a mortar live fire practice in support of the School of Infantry Officer Training (Singleton in July).
- Conducted a small arms Combat Shooting qualifying practice (Holsworthy in July)
- Conducted UAV operator and UAV Commander training (Randwick in August)
- Conducted a Field Training weekend activity (Holsworthy in September)

During the next 6 months, 7 Battery will advance preparations to relocate 25 Troop from Erina depot to Pymble depot and subsequently drive a recruiting campaign to strengthen the Battery's Sydney base to a more sustainable posture.

9th Regiment equipment modernisation includes a new Mortar System ballistic computer supplied in October 2019, the first allocation of up to 4 new Mercedes G-Wagons are expected prior to the end of 2020 and the new 81mm mortar by March 2021. A new Forward Air Controller (FAC) simulator facility at RAAF Base Williamtown known as 'the dome' commenced routine usage by the Newcastle Troop's Forward Observer parties as a training tool.

By June, individual training priorities began to give way to collective training as the Battery transitioned into "readying" for Battlegroup Waratah as the battlegroup's joint fires capability. As part of this continuum, EX Chong Ju, Army's premiere live fire demonstration, will be supported for the first time by 7 Battery in 2021. Finally, the culmination of this training will be realised in support of Exercise HAMEL/Talisman Sabre in 2021.

Support to domestic operations will remain the priority for the Battery and a state of readiness will endure throughout all phases, particularly during the prevailing national medical emergency.

A new officer was posted into 7 Battery commencing January 2020 - LT Matthew Bojanic, bringing the total Officer count to 1x Major and 4x Lieutenants, offering a bright future for the Battery. Recruiting activity continues to generate a steady inflow of soldiers including gunners, clerks, supply operators and drivers and all members of the Battery remain committed to local and regional recruiting plans.

Officers and soldiers of 7 Battery acknowledge the support of the 7 Field Regiment Association and thank the committee members for their ongoing support. 7 Battery identifies the Battery's lineage lies with the 7th Field Regiment and its distant lineage with the 7th Australian Field Artillery Brigade, AIF.

EAST TIMOR 1999 – 2013

Although no one knew it at the time 1999 was to mark the end of the "Long Peace" from an Army and an Artillery perspective. Up until 1999, the only Gunner force elements to have seen operational service since the end of the Vietnam War, were small RBS 70 detachments from 16th AD Regiment, ship bound during the 1990/91 Gulf War, RAA signallers deployed to support RA Signals communicators in Cambodia and from 107th Field Battery, 4th Field Regiment, who deployed to Somalia in 1993 as part of the 1st RAR Battalion Group on OP Solace. These Gunners provided the Civil Military Affairs (CMA) capability of the Battalion group. Based on the battery commander and forward observer parties, with their inherent command, control and communications capabilities, CMA was a secondary role that the RAA had acquired during the "Long Peace".

In September 1999, 3rd Brigade deployed to East Timor as the major ground element of the International Force East Timor (INTERFET). While the guns did not deploy as part of the Operation the command elements of 4th Field Regiment and its batteries (A and 108th Field Battery) did. They were later joined by elements from 103rd Medium Battery, who deployed with the 5/7TH RAR Battalion Group.

In addition to the Regiment's and Batteries command, control and liaison CMA groups, the gunlines deployed as additional rifle companies, as these images of the INTERFET period show.

Gunner Sage 108th Field Battery foot patrol

When INTERFET handed over to the United Nations Transitional Authority East Timor (UNTAET), in February 2000, Army's contribution downsized from a brigade to a battalion group operation in AO Matilda of Sector West. Under OP Tanager and subsequently OP Citadel the Australian battalion groups (AUSBATT) commenced a six-monthly rotation program from 2000 through to 2004 (AUSBATTs I-IX), which meant that by the time Sector West was finally evacuated in 2004 all of the infantry battalions and subsequently all the ARA gun batteries and elements from 131st Battery had deployed to East Timor. After 2006, further deployments were enjoyed by Gunner contributions to the ANZAC Battlegroups of OP Astute, which included 4th Field Regiment and batteries from 16th AD Regiment in the infantry role.

However, the principal role which the gunners had in East Timor during Ops Tanager and Citadel was to provide the CMA capability for the battalions. Fulfilling the same role that they had experienced on OP Solace, CMA was a particularly important task because it provided an important interface with the people of Sector West and it was the people of Sector West, who were considered to be the Centre of Gravity, for the successful conduct of peacekeeping operations.

A Field Battery CMA team briefing Commander Sector West (Brigadier Vince Williams) 2002

It was not all work for the CMA teams and those from A Field Battery, under BC Major Brian Hawke, took the opportunity to celebrate the Regiment's 131st birthday on 1st August 2002 at Moleana. It was appropriate that the oldest serving gunner in theatre (Commander Sector West) and the youngest gunner in the Battery jointly cut the cake.

A Field Battery CMA teams celebrate the Regiment's 131st birthday with Commander Sector West

Gunners fulfilled a number of individual roles in East Timor as well. One of these was as United Nations Military Observers an unarmed military observer group, which operated on both sides of the Tactical Control Line (the defacto border with Indonesia) and were seen to be impartial and distinct from the armed UN forces. They were happy to interact with all and sundry, as this image of then Lieutenant Colonel Dave Coghlan reveals.

Gunners also variously provided Headquarter Staff at both the Peacekeeping Force and Sector West; Commander of the Australian National Command Element (Gerard Fogarty); Deputy Commander of the PKF (Paul Retter); and Commander Sector West (Vince Williams).

The Gunner experiences were many and varied and all those who deployed brought credit to a Regiment renowned for its flexibility and adaptability. Although, as we approach our 150th anniversary, it is a tragedy that it is also 50 years ago that we last deployed our guns on operations.
